RE: The Application of Paul Weatherbee
No: 10/824,821
Docket Number: MAE-WW-03
Title: Pulsatile Blood Pumping System

Dear Sirs:

Transmitted here is a petition for acceptance of delayed payment of maintenance fee under 37 CFR §1.378 for the patent of Paul Weatherbee (Pulsatile Blood Pumping System).

The petition elements filed herewith are indicated on the enclosed form PTO/SB/66.

The entire delay in filing the required reply from the final due date for payment of the maintenance fee until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR §1.378 was unintentional.

Applicant respectfully requests a prompt removal of the patent expiration.

Please also stamp and mail the enclosed self-addressed stamped postcard with the date of receipt, to evidence its receipt by the Patent and Trademark Office.

Please call the undersigned if there are any questions relative to this application.

Respectfully submitted:

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.
